

Did you miss out on volunteering last semester?

Come join the Criminal Justice Caucus to learn about volunteer opportunities

This year, the Petey Greene program would like to bring Columbia students as tutors into classrooms at MCC, a federal correctional facility in lower Manhattan. They work to promote academic achievement in prison classrooms in order to support people and build stronger communities.

THE PETEY
GREENE
PROGRAM

Wednesday, February, 4 @ 8:10pm

Room 311

Columbia University makes every effort to accommodate individuals with disabilities. If you require disability accommodations to attend an event at Columbia University, please contact the Disability Services at 212-854-2388 OR disability@columbia.edu at least 5 days in advance of the event.

Presented by the Criminal Justice Caucus with support from the Office of Student Services.
